will endeavor jointly in a spirit of cooperation and mutual trust to resolve any difficulties or misunderstandings which may arise.

- xi. The ownership of any intellectual property arising out of research undertaken through Cluster Research Centre in Education shall be decided by the concerned individual researcher and his/her research guide. The Cluster Research Centre in Education itself shall not have any ownership rights on such intellectual property.
- xii. The institutions shall extend help in conducting activities of Cluster Research Centre in Education.

3. Confidentiality

- i. The participating institutions shall maintain strict confidentiality of any information, data or communication of any nature between them with regard to this MoU or operation of Cluster Research Centre in Education and shall not disclose the same to any third party without written consent of the other institutions.

4. Amendment

- i. This MoU may be amended by mutual written consent of all the participating institutions and the Directorate of Higher Education.

5. Co-ordination Mechanism

In order to ensure smooth functioning of the Cluster Research Centre, the Directorate of Higher Education will constitute a co-ordination committee consisting of

- 1) Principals of the participating institutions
- 2) Supervising guides
- 3) Any other academicians or subject experts nominated by the DHE
